VOL. III. NO. 31.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS

BROOKLYN AND SUBURBAN.

The Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps should be abolished or made summer events. They are out of line: because too early for true contention by the great eligible division of American racing. They are events for our August or September not our June. But they are realities and important enough for discussion.

The Suburban and Brooklyn handicaps only fill because of the social and official press that is applied to get entries to them. But they do fill and weights being assigned to their candidates there is news in the discussion of the candidates and their weights. The Brooklyn is to be run first this year, June 1, at Gravesend. It is at 1 1/4 miles, worth $10,000 and drew thirty-one entries. The lot isn't superfine. Requitul with 128 pounds and Hastings and Handspring with 123 seem to be anchored. Halma is under suspicion, Belmar's too much of a plodder for 121 pounds and in the general will-not-do brigade one can put Sir Walter, Dr. Rice, Ben Eder, Dorian, Loki, Lake Shore, Merry Prince, King Arthur II, Harrington, The Swain, Cleophus, Counsellor Howe, Volley, Blaiseroek, Jefferson and Rotterdam. Algot too can be cast out on three-year-old grounds.

This leaves but nine factors, as follows:
 Ben Brush (4).....123 The Winner (4).....115
 Harry Reed (4).....114 Roundsman (4).....108
 Free Advice (4).....108 Maurice (4).....107
 Peep o'Day (4).....107 Howard Mann (4).....106
 Havoc (5).....102

Of this band of nine Ben Brush, Roundsman and Free Advice seem to be the best at the weights.

The Suburban promises better than the Brooklyn. It is run June 22 at Coney Island and has forty-five entries.

The Suburban is at a mile and a quarter too, and worth $7,500.

Its live ones on the handicap at the weights seem to be:
 Buckmassie (5).....124 Ben Brush (4).....123
 Flying Dutchman (5)121 Roundsman (4).....109
 Peep o'Day (4).....107 Maurice (5).....108
 Semper Ego (4).....106 Ogden (3).....105
 Ben Holladay (4).....104 Havoc (5).....102
 Typhoon II (3).....100 Algot (3).....100

Of this dozen Ogden is best in. He seemed to be one of your Salvator—Tammany kind last year. A three-year-old is looked upon with humor as an early handicap possibility. A great colt overcomes all difficulties and does great things. If Ogden is prepared for and starts in the Suburban, he ought to win it. Marcus Daly says the colt will not start, but Marcus Daly always goes for a classic, if he has half a chance. He's a high class man and a sportsman of the same grade. If Ogden does well and is ready, Ogden will be a Suburban starter.

Outside Ogden, Roundsman is best in, according to my notion. After him I like the chances of Maurice, Flying Dutchman, Buckmassie and Ben Holladay. The latter is perhaps too lightly weighted in the handicap.

FATHEADED LEGISLATIVE IDEAS.

An obtuse racing bill has been injected within the Wisconsin legislature by a "trooly rooral" member. It threatens to kill off all racing, of all kinds. The lesson of Illinois is too neighborly and broad for any bill of the kind to be adopted by the Wisconsin or any central-western legislature. Wise regulation is healthy, when it surrounds racing, trade or religion. But the notions of an ignoramus in either avenue have but a small chance, after such a term of trade stagnation and a spell of fanaticism—through lack of legislation—which cost Illinois many millions of dollars and gave Wisconsin, Missouri, Indiana and Ohio a few of the millions.

Missouri is similarly afflicted. An obscure legislator—Peers by name—has fired a clumsy measure into the Missouri Senate. It prohibits betting of all kinds in a peculiarly comprehensive way. The Peers' measure has no chance. It would, should it be adopted, cripple or kill an industry worth some ten millions of dollars to a state which has shown strong and steady growth in equine avenues for the last five years.

The honesty of the builders of the Wisconsin and Missouri bills are not within survey. The right and knowledge of "rooralists" from a 5,000 vote district to legislate for millions can be seriously questioned, however. Strangely, too, all the recent western legislative mischief about racing usually has an agricultural sponsor. In these days, too, the East, in which anti racing mischief started out of the villany of factions, shows an intelligent and concise effort to amend the wrong and treat an industry of great worth and scope with respect and liberal fairness. It is about time that the West fell into line.

The American Sporting Manual

A YEAR BOOK AND COMPENDIUM OF RECORDS

The Manual will be: A Book for the Pocket.
A Book of Authority.
A Comely Book. A Cheap Book.

It will contain all general sporting records in use. All American Turf Records. All American Track Records. A twenty-page history of all the prize fights and boxing matches of 1896, from January 1 to December 31, 1896. Two handicap tables; one reproduced from the American Racing Manual, and a new one of even sharper application to racing, never before published.

The Manual will contain the 1896 figures of Baseball, Aquatics, Football, and Athletics in general—racing, trotting, pacing and all departments of sporting. Within The Manual's covers will be 100 pages of pure sporting figures.

The American Manual's handicap tables alone are such as have been usually sold at $50 and $100 each. With them are published explanatory keys and three races which have been run and to which the figures have been applied. These keys show horses, estimate of ability on past races, figures on the race to be run and their position in race to which figures were fitted.

Table No. 2 is entirely new. The track records and time estimate in the book are the result of nine months daily work of five experienced men.
